pediment, supported by six pillars; the grounds are very tastefully laid out.

Hope Hall, formerly the residence of Sir Thomas Fairfax, is now occupied by Mrs James Lane-Fox.

Oglothorpe Hall, now a farmhouse in the occupation of Messrs. Richard Wright and Son is about a mile east from Bramham; this place was formerly the residence of the ancient family of Oglothorpe, one of whom was reeve of the county at the time of the Norman Conquest; they continued to reside here until the period of the Civil War, when, on account of their devotion to the Royal cause, their estates were confiscated by the Parliament.

Col. Frederick Richard Thomas Trench-Gascoigne D.S.O. of Lotherton Hall, is lord of the manor.

G. R. Lane-Fox esq. M.P., J.P. is the principal landowner

The soil is light loam; subsoil, magnesian limestone and freestone.

The chief crops are turnips, barley, wheat and oats.

The population of the parish in 1901 was 955; the area, 4,107 acres of land and 5 of water; rateable value, £5,542
